11. Read the article. Are the sentences True (T) or False (F)?

Joanne Kathleen (JK) Rowling was born in England on 31st July, 1965. She wrote her first book, Rabbit, when she was 6 years old. At school she liked English and languages, and she went to university to study French. She graduated from university and worked as a secretary and a teacher.

When she was 26, J.K. Rowling went to Portugal and became an English teacher. She wanted to be a writer and she wrote some stories about a boy called Harry Potter. She got married and had a baby daughter. But soon after, she got divorced and went to Scotland. There she lived in a small apartment with her daughter. She worked as a French teacher, but she really wanted to make the Harry Potter stories into a book. This was a very difficult time in her life because they had no money, and she wrote the first Harry Potter book in a café.

In June 1997 the first Harry Potter book became famous and J.K./Rowling's life changed. There are now more Harry Potter books, and films too. Children love her books and L.K. Rowling is rich now. In 2001 she got married to her second husband. She had a son in 2003 and another daughter in 2005.

- a) J.K. Rowling studied French at university. _____
- b) J.K. Rowling wrote her first book when she was sixteen. _____
- c) In Portugal she was an English teacher. _____
- d) J.K. Rowling got divorced in Scotland. _____
- e) She got married again in 2001. _____
- f) She has three daughters. _____
